Pardon Charlie Young

Inasmuch as some criticism has been made of the governor for granting a pardon to Charlie Young, convicted in this county of forgery, we have been requested to publish the record in order that all the facts may be known. The idea seems to prevail that the pardon covers any and all offenses of which Charlie Young may have been guilty. This is a mistake; it covers only those of which he has been convicted, and was granted in this shape in order to restore his power to testify against the leader of the gang of forgers, who it was desired to break up.

Following is the correspondence and pardon:

Anderson, S. C., April 1, 1916.
Gov. Richard I. Manning,
Columbia, S. C.

Dear Sir:

At the last term of the court of general sessions one Charlie Young plead guilty to the charge of forgery and was sentenced to serve one year on the public works of this county, this being the minimum sentence under the law for this offense. There has been a gang of negroes operating here and this defendant was the only one who would plead guilty, and if we can get his testimony I am of the opinion that we can convict the ring leader and possibly others.

At the time he plead guilty I told Mr. G. Cullen Sullivan of this city that I would recommend a pardon for this defendant after he had served sixty days of his sentence, and I am now making this request of you believing that the ends of justice will be subserved thereby. This defendant was only guilty of uttering the forged check and I am now anxious to secure the conviction of the real forger.

Sometime ago the defendant, Charlie Young, was convicted of obtaining goods under false pretenses in the magistrate's court and if you see fit to grant this request for a pardon, I will ask that you grant it in the form of a blanket pardon so as to cover this last named offense, thereby removing the disability which he is under so that I can then use him as a witness in the trial of Frank Young. He has served his sentence for obtaining goods under false pretenses.

My agreement with Mr. Sullivan of course is not binding on you but was a mere agreement to recommend to you the granting of this pardon, and I do so believing that it is for the best interest of society that he be pardoned so that I can use him in cases now pending. I made this agreement after having discussed the matter with Presiding Judge M. L. Smith.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) Kurtz P. Smith,
Solicitor 10th Circuit.
I recommend that the request contained in the within letter, for the reasons therein stated, be granted.
(Signed) Mendel L. Smith,
Circuit Judge.

April 11, 1916.

G. CULLEN SULLIVAN
Attorney-at-Law
ANDERSON, SOUTH CAROLINA

April 7th, 1916.
Gov. Richard I. Manning,
Columbia, S. C.

Dear Governor:

Mr. K. P. Smith, solicitor of this, the Tenth circuit, tells me he has written you in regard to pardoning a negro, Charley Young, who plead guilty to uttering a forged check at the last term of criminal court here.

This negro passed the check which had been forged by another negro, and the latter negro seems to be the "brains" of a gang of negroes who have been forging a number of checks.

In view of the fact that Charley Young plead guilty to his part of the affair, Solicitor Smith agreed to recommend the pardon of Charley Young to become effective two months after conviction. This two months expires in a few days.

Because of the fact that Charley Young cannot testify until pardoned and the other circumstances, the presiding judge, Hon. Mendel L. Smith, agreed to join with the solicitor in recommending a pardon. The negro, Charley Young, was in jail several months before trial and this confinement, with the two months on the chain gang, makes his punishment severe anyway. The only reason he was sentenced to one year was that this is the minimum sentence fixed by law and the judge has no legal right to make the sentence less.

In view of the fact that Charley Young had been previously convicted in a magistrate court, we ask that your pardon be in such form as to cover all offenses of which he may have been convicted.

It is a rare occasion, indeed, that I ask for executive clemency, but I feel that the state will gain more by the testimony of Charley Young against the leader of the "gang" than by requiring Young to serve the remainder of his sentence.

Your prompt attention to this matter will be appreciated.

With regards, I am,
Sincerely,
(Signed) G. Cullen Sullivan.

THE COBURN PLAYERS

Appear at Clemson College, Campus on 17 and 18.

The following, as portrayed in part from the St. Louis Republic, dealing with the Coburn players, will be read with interest:

It is a pleasure to speak a word of recognition of a company of artists who have labored so conscientiously and so successfully. Much of their work has been done in educational centers where the audience were made up of students with their sisters and their cousins and their aunts, not to speak of their male relatives. These young people, just a highly, obtainable everywhere.

the impressionable age, and their older relatives and friends, representative of the home and sinew of American citizenship—people of clean lives, workers without other poverty or riches—have looked and listened their fill with their pleasure unmediated by theories. They have sat under the open sky looking toward a screen of leafy branches at the rear of an improvised stage and have seen the life of Venice and Verona go by, the castle of Macbeth arise through the mist, they have seen players who played Shakespeare as a Hungarian orchestra plays stringed instruments—with an intelligence set on fire by enthusiasm. They have found Shakespeare "fun" and until this stage comes you have no art, notwithstanding the dreary consciousness of the people who get on annotated editions.
